Consent to Treat and Receipt of Privacy Practices Notice

I appreciate your time in reading my disclosure statement/fees policy and HIPAA Notice. I look forward to building a good therapeutic relationship and reaching your psychotherapy goals.

The client is free to ask questions about treatment during the initial session or at any time during psychotherapy treatment. You can contact Erika Mora, MSW, LICSW at 425-9533-910. The psychotherapist can also be reached by email at foreverevolvingpllc@gmail.com. Please be aware that there are privacy risks and limitations to confidentiality involved in all electronic communication. Please limit electronic information.

It has been informed to the client that in psychotherapy treatment sometimes things may feel as if they are getting worse before things feel better. The client understands that this is a normal process in psychotherapy and is encouraged to discuss when in session.

A copy of the therapist's Disclosure Statement, HIPAA and Washington State Notice Rights and Privacy Copy have been provided to the client. An invitation to ask any questions regarding this material and understanding as of the information has been provided by the therapist. The client is of sound mind and body, participates voluntarily, and understands that the client is personally responsible for the experience.

The client understands that Erika Mora, MSW, LICSW desires to maintain strict confidentiality. This includes not discussing with any person that the client is/was/may be in psychotherapy treatment at Forever Evolving Psychotherapy PLLC. However, the client may grant Erika Mora, MSW, LICSW the right to release such information.
